INTRODUCTION

The University of Karachi: A symbol of Excellence, Innovation & Diversity

The University of Karachi established in 1951 by the Parliament through the "University of Karachi Act, 1950", as a Federal University, later transitioned into a provincial institution in the province of Sindh in 1962. With the passage of time, it has emerged as a prestigious national institution imparting quality education. What started in a modest compound on Princess Street near Civil Hospital has grown into one of the largest and prestigious universities of the country. Located now on the University Road, which was earlier called the Country Club Road, KU stands as a national leader in higher education and research, recognized globally for its academic excellence.

Today, the University of Karachi holds the status of an active academic community, dedicated to achieving excellence at all levels of higher education and research. This premier institution has emerged as a dynamic place, keeping pace with academic advances and changes occurring globally.

Proud to have produced prominent scientists and scholars in diverse fields, the University of Karachi has made a prominent place in the educational landscape of the country. The scholars and scientists affiliated with the university have secured important positions both at national and international level and have been acclaimed as active and dedicated members of the society striving to bring positive changes.

Currently, the University of Karachi is offering BS 1st Year and BS 3rd Year Programmes as well as M.S., M.Phil. and Doctorate along with diploma and certificate courses in five disciplines, which include, the Faculty of Education, Faculty of Management & Administrative Sciences, Faculty of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Faculty of Science, and Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences.Being an affiliating and examining body, Karachi University has granted affiliation to almost 145 colleges and institutes. It conducts examinations of about 1,50,000 students studying in these colleges/ institutes, prepares their results and awards degrees.

The Evening Programme launched in 1995 has added to the prestige of the university, as it has made quality education accessible to even those who wish to either resume their academic journey after several years' of gap or cannot manage to take admission in the morning programme because of their jobs. An independent Directorate of Evening Programme established in 1995 deals with the matters pertaining to studies in the evening, including admissions, academics and administration.

EVENING PROGRAMMES

To cope up with the growing demand of learning opportunities, the University of Karachi initiated its Evening Programme in 1995. The programme was specifically designed for those knowledge seekers willing to continue or advance their education along with their professional engagements. Later, its facilities as well as academic and research output attracted other students as well.

The evening programme is based on merit and offers BS 1st Year and BS 3rd Year Intake Intake programmes in various disciplines in the Faculty of Education, Management & Administrative Sciences, Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Science, and Arts & Social Sciences. With the approval from the statutory bodies of the university, the evening programme started with a fewer number of academic programmes conducted by various departments of the university.

Later on, the scope of the evening programme was extended to include BS 1st and BS 3rd Year Intake. It is noteworthy that the graduates of the evening programme are also awarded degrees along with the graduates of the morning programme in the annual convocation. This way the students of the evening programme stand in line with the morning graduates. Both morning and evening programmes follow similar curriculum taught by highly qualified and experienced faculty members.

In departments where laboratory experiments are a part of the offered courses, the evening programme usually commences at 3:30 p.m., while in others, the teaching schedule is decided by the departments' management as per the needs of the courses within the working hours of the Evening Programme. These timings provide an excellent opportunity to in-service individuals who intend to improve their academic qualifications for enhancing learning and career prospects. The admission process begins during the last quarter of the year through newspaper advertisements, while the classes for the first semester commence in January. All programmes have two semesters per year with tuition fee payable in each semester.

WHO SHOULD GET ENROLLED?

- All prospective students willing to join the University to accomplish higher education.
- In-service candidates keen to improve their qualification and skills.
- There is no gender discrimination as no additional seats are offered based on gender.
- Contrary to the morning programme of the University of Karachi, there is no restriction regarding the year of passing. Nonetheless, the pre-requisite examination must have been passed from a recognized Institution / University.

DEGREE PROGRAMMES

The degree awarded by Karachi University is acknowledged globally as the university ranks among the Top Universities of the World, for the third consecutive year, according to the world's most reputed ranking agency, Times Higher Education and Quacquarelli Symonds (THEQS), UK. To further strengthen the current standard of education and research, the University of Karachi has also established a Quality Enhancement Cell (QEC). The prime objective of QEC is to introduce self-assessment programmes with an understanding for ensuring quality education and research in all disciplines offered at the University.

As per the instruction of Higher Education Commission, the University of Karachi introduced a four-year BS programme in place of its BA/BSc. (Honors) programmes.

Admissions are offered in the following degree programmes simultaneously:

Applied Physics

Introduction

The Department of Applied Physics was established in 1971 with the objective to teach and train students to meet the growing technological needs of the industries of Pakistan in the area of Applied Physics. Over the years emphasis has shifted toward electronics and semiconductor technology because of the growing demand of technologically-advanced industries in Pakistan. The syllabus is updated from time to time to keep abreast with the development in technology.

Our objective is to prepare students to meet challenges of the fast growing technologies in the field of Electronics and Semiconductors. The curriculum provides an in-depth understanding of the subjects such as Analog and Digital Electronics, Industrial Electronics, Semiconductor Devices, Communication systems including Microwave and optical fiber communications.

Microprocessor/Microcontroller and Digital Signal processors (DSP) are hubs of intelligent electronic systems including computers and almost all state-of-the-art equipment used in communications.

Students are required to spend a considerable amount of time in the laboratories to develop an in-depth understanding of the subject they study in classes. For this purpose, separate laboratory courses are designed. The laboratory training begins with circuits related to basic Analog Electronics, progressively performing experiments on Digital Electronics, Industrial Electronics and finally developing a single board computer based on microcontroller. Students are also trained to operate Programmable Logic Controllers (PLC) through the use of software and hardware simulators. Similarly, they are trained in the field of communication using communication training kits.

Facilities

To teach practical aspect of electronics and give hands-on experience, laboratories have been equipped with the latest instruments. There has been a continuous upgrade of laboratories in the department. In addition to general purpose laboratories where students perform experiments on circuits based on Analog and Digital Electronics, separate laboratories are established for training. These include Computer Laboratory which is equipped with the latest computers connected through LAN. Communication Laboratory has trainers to train students on Microwave and Optical fiber communication systems. Programmable Logic Controller (PLC) is equipped with PLCs from Siemens and Ge-Fanuc.

Students use Software and Hardware simulators to develop and verify programmes. Cargo lift, Conveyor belt and process models have been developed indigenously that are controlled by the PLC.

Chemistry

Introduction

The Department of Chemistry is one of the oldest departments of the University of Karachi. When the university was shifted to its present location, the department was housed in one of the few newly constructed buildings and is still housed there.

Being a noble central science, chemistry helps understand the origin of life and suggests ways to use non-living things for providing in life. To train the young generation and to direct their approach to accomplish this task easily, it is necessary to make students understand the principles underlying the composition, structure and properties of substances along with the transformation that they undergo. It is, therefore, obvious that chemical orientation cannot be imparted in isolation and has to be developed through the knowledge of physics and biology on one hand, and engineering and applied sciences, on the other. Having skilled faculty, well-equipped laboratories and other infrastructure the department is imparting quality education.

Facilities

The Department of Chemistry Seminar Library, has a stock of about 10,000 books and research journals on various fields of Chemistry. The Department is also equipped with many modern instruments for training students for challenging careers and research. These include, pH/Ion meters, conductometers, polarimeters, refractometers, potentiometers, electrochemical analyzers, HPLC, atomic absorption spectrometers, UV-Visible spectrophotometers, FTIR Spectrometers, Guoy Balance for magnetic susceptibility measurements, flame photometers, computers, deionizers, analytical balances, ovens, furnaces, centrifuges as well as a substantial stock of glassware and chemicals.

A modern instrumental laboratory has been furnished to house the new atomic absorption spectrometers, HPLC, GC, GC-MS as well as some other modern instruments. These and other instruments were acquired through a generous grant of Rs.39.95 million provided by the Higher Education Commission, Pakistan. The department has internet facility in every research lab and office through a fiber-optic link.

Specific Research Areas

Analytical, Inorganic, Industrial, Organic, Physical, Environmental, Pharmaceutical, Clinical and Polymer Chemistry.

Microbiology

Introduction

The Department of Microbiology established in 1957 and the one and only department in the field for many years in the country, offering undergraduate and postgraduate degrees.

Microbiology is a broad discipline with both basic and applied aspects. Therefore, microbiologists must have a good understanding about microbial taxonomy, genetics, immunology and physiology to identify these agents, explore their metabolic potential on commercial levels and to manipulate these organisms for the betterment of humanity. The study of microorganisms and their potential is also necessary for the production of bread, cheese, antibiotics, vaccines, vitamins and many other important products. Microorganisms are involved in causing serious infections in humans, animals and plants.

Because of the importance of the subject and its application, this department is now regarded as one of the best departments within the Faculty of Science. As a result, this department has become one of the popular departments and a large number of students choose to study Microbiology.

Facilities

The department has 10 laboratories and 3 lecture hall/rooms, where theory and practical classes are held. In addition to this, there are 3 media preparation rooms.

The Department of Microbiology is the only teaching department which possesses a cold room where research experiments at below ambient temperature can be conducted.

A computer lab with internet facility is available for all students, while a separate well-equipped lab is allocated for research students.

Specific Research Areas

Research scholars are working on exceptionally diverse areas of microbiology including various fields in biochemistry, genetics, clinical microbiology, mechanisms of microbial virulence, epidemiological studies, studies on microbial enzymes of industrial importance, biotransformation, studies on bioactivities of microbial metabolites, immunological aspects of diagnosis, molecular aspects of disease diagnosis and microbial control, bacteriocins, bioactivities of natural products, molecular biology of phages, biodiversity & environment exploration of biotechnological potential of micro-organisms and many others.

Physics

Introduction

The Department of Physics was one of the first four departments of the University of Karachi to be established in the Faculty of Science. It was formally opened for teaching Physics in 1953 with Professor Dr. Mujtaba Karim as the founding Chairman. The mission, set forth at its very inception, was to offer scientifically advanced and updated undergraduate and post-graduate programmes in Physics having depth and breadth needed to confront the challenges of rapidly evolving and growing scientific understanding of nature and at the same time, remaining at par with the industrial requirements of the country. These programmes are meant to prepare students and researchers in creating their own intellectual property in the form of quality research publications and patents. In order to conceive these objectives, the faculty members are engaged in establishing research laboratories consistent with present-day laboratory technology. These research laboratories facilitate undergraduate and post-graduate research students in their research projects and theses. With these purposeful motives, a well-qualified faculty of 24 teaching and 20 supporting non-teaching staff members are presently working. All teaching faculty members are either Ph.D. qualified or have M.Phil. degrees in diverse fields of experimental and theoretical Physics. In addition to permanent faculty members, the department also hires visiting teaching staff.

Currently, the Department of Physics is offering 3-degree programmes in Physics, namely, BS in Physics as undergraduate programme and M.Phil. and PhD as post-graduate programmes. In order to keep students and faculty members abreast of the recent developments and innovations in the field of Physics, conferences and seminars are regularly organized in the department. In order to establish strong connections with the scientific community, faculty members and students are encouraged to participate and contribute their research in conferences organized by local and international universities. Furthermore, to have strong ties with the industry, the Department of Physics has continuous engagements with the industrial community in the form of student visits, internship programmes, seminars and talks delivered by specialists from both private and public sector industry. Women and Gender Studies

Introduction

Women's Studies, an interdisciplinary subject, aims to make visible women's role and contributions towards building a society that is free of any gender bias, for a holistic development of the nation. Since its inception, the Centre of Excellence for Women's Studies (CEWS), University of Karachi has been engaged in offering teaching and research facilities in a friendly environment to prepare students to act as agents of change. We are the first to offer M.A and M.Phil./Ph.D. degree programmes in gender studies in Pakistan. Currently the Centre is offering BS, BS 3rd Year (morning & evening), and M.Phil./Ph.D. programmes. Offering a variety of courses to address the issues of women and gender, both nationally and internationally, the major focus of our teaching and research is to bridge the gap between the academia and women at the grass-root level. Our students move beyond the campus and interact with women to document their everyday experiences.

Facilities

CEWS has highly qualified faculty members who encourage and assist students in their quest for knowledge. We also invite scholars, academics and activists from various fields to share their knowledge and experiences with our students.

Our library with more than 4000 books, journals, reports on women and gender is one of a kind in the country. We have a collection of press clippings on almost all aspects of women's lives. Our library is not just accessible to our students but also to all scholars, activists and journalists who wish to avail themselves of this facility. The catalogue of our library is accessible through electronic portal.

It is not just a legend.
It is the tale of an institution.
who carries the mandateof Pakistan.
since its birth.

Its roots are as deep as the history of Pakistan.
So let me bring you to the journey of Pakistan.

The journey of self-actualization.
The journey of unending devotion.
The midst of struggle.
The journey filled with lessons of eternal peace and harmony...

Writer: Mohsin Ahmed

سبز پتوں کا بن جو میرا دیس ہے
وہیں کہیں اس باغ کی
ایک چھاؤں ہوں میں !!

چھاؤں کہ جس میں
کئیں خواب بسیرا کرتے ہیں ، تعبیر پاتے ہیں
چھاؤں کہ جہاں پرورش ہے لوح و قلم کی
تصور سے تصویر کی
تصویر سے تسخیر کی
کئیں آنکھوں کے بیتے کل سے
نئے دور میں طلوع ہوتی صبحوں کی

سبھی سخت موسموں سے لڑتے
نئے ارادوں کی تعمیر کی
وہی چھاؤں ہوں میں

جہاں سدا ہی آگہی کے کنول کھلے
نغمے پلے ، ادب و آداب پروان چڑھے
ہاں وہی چھاؤں ہوں میں

چھاؤں کہ جس کا نشان کاوشوں کا ہے بیاں
دیس کی سر سبز شادابی کا ہوں میں بیاں

میں جامعہ کراچی

سنو،، دیکھو !
میرے سائے میں پلنے والوں
یہ میری کئیں برسوں کی
بے انت محبت کی داستان ہے

جس کا عنوان تم ہی تم ہو فقط تم
اور میں تمھاری چھاؤں !!
